

UNDER COVER

Garden bites

While North Haven Gardens launched as a roadside neighborhood nursery 67 years ago, it's blossomed into a mini cultural center with garden-themed classes, festivals, a gallery and even a quaint cafe. Tucked into the nursery at 7700 Northaven Road, the cafe menu reflects the garden setting with crisp salads, artisanal sandwiches and sumptuous desserts — along with wine, beer and cocktails.

If your iconic neighborhood business would like an opportunity to collaborate with us on our cover photo package, please contact editor Elissa Chudwin at echudwin@advocatemag.com.

SPONSORED CONTENT